Wilmington, Dec. 2. 1838.

My dear Sir,

612

Mr. Stanton

occupied a high place in his class, for talent, scholarship, & character. Except when disabled by disease or accident, he was remarkably attentive to his duties & successful in them.
As to certain points of character,
I thought I saw a gradual improvement in him while he remarried with us. I should respect him to be very useful as a missionary.

Very respectfully &

Truly yours,

J. A. Alexander
